

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, November 10. 1702.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 9.

Rome, October 21.

THE Prince of Santbuono, who came hither from Naples, is gone to Venice in Quality of Ambassador of Spain. On the 18th we felt two Shogs of an Earthquake, which were follow'd by a great Storm of Lightning, Thunder and Rain, that lasted 12 hours, but we suffer'd no Damage, tho' the Tiber and all the other neighbouring Streams were swell'd very high by the Rain. At the instance of the Queen Dowager of Poland, the Pope has granted leave to seven Nuns, which she sent for out of France, to supply a Convent that she has lately founded here, to visit the Churches and Cloysters of this City, in Coaches with the Curtains close drawn. Cardinal Tanara has complain'd to Cardinal Fourbin, that the French have taken away a great quantity of Corn out of his Abbey of Nonantole in the Modeneze; but was answer'd by Cardinal Fourbin, that he did not concern himself with Affairs of War. The Ecclesiasticks of the Dutchy of Modena have likewise complain'd to the Pope, that the French have exacted great Contributions of them, in contempt of their Privileges and the Rights of the Church; to whom his Holiness has given an ambiguous answer, not much to their Satisfaction.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 30.

Hamburg, October 13. The Corpse of the late Duke of Holstein Gottorp was brought to Rhynbeck on the 9th, where it is to remain till the Preparations for the Funeral are finish'd. There have been great Contentts about the Guardianship of his Son and Successor the young Duke of Holstein. One part of the Estates of that Dutchy, would have given it to the Dutches, his Mother, Sister to the King of Sweden; but the rest oppos'd it, alledging it to be the Right of Prince Christian Lewis Brother of the Deceas'd Duke, and conformable to the Constitutions of the Empire, of which Holstein is a Fief. The King of Denmark who possesseſ part of the Country in common with the Duke, declar'd himself to be of the latter Opinion; and the King of Sweden having left the Nobility and the other Estates entirely at liberty to decide this Affair as they should think fit; the Guardianship is conferr'd on Prince Christian; and thus the Commotions that were apprehended from this Dispute are allay'd. Prince Christian left this City on the 9th, and arriv'd the same day at Gottorp. The next day he order'd the Officers and the Nobility to take an Oath of Fidelity to him on the 11th, in quality of Administrator of the Dutchys of Holstein and Sleswick.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 4.

Hamburg, October 20. The Corpse of the Duke of Holstein Gottorp is still in the Castle of Rhynbeck, where 'tis attended by two Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber, and two Officers of the Troops, till all things are ready for the Funeral Solemnity. The Dutches of Holstein, his Widow, has consented that Prince Christian should have the Administration of the Government during the Minority of the Young Duke, who is with her at Stockholm; but yet on condition that she shall have the disposal of all Offices Civil and Military. 'Tis said Prince Christian is willing to accept of the Administration on those Terms, but 'tis believ'd the Nobility of Holstein will oppose such a Restriction. The King of Denmark has form'd some Pretentions likewise; but 'tis hoped that all these Difficulties will be adjusted amicably.
